

University of Fiji COP 23 Awareness Seminar Session 5

The University of Fiji's Saweni campus hosted yet another session of its monthly COP 23 awareness seminars.

The fifth session was held on Friday 21st July and was facilitated by the School of Science & Technology who hosted two presenters from local NGO, Diverse Voices for Action and Equality (DIVA). DIVA for Equality is also co-convenor of Pacific Partnerships on Gender, Climate Change & Sustainable Development; the Pacific Urgent Action Hub for Climate Justice, and Women and Gender Constituency (WGC) Liaison to the UNFCCC COP 23 Presidency (Fiji).

DIVA Political Advisor Ms. Noelene Nabulivou and Management Collective Ms. Maria Nailevu spoke on the topic 'The Gender Dimension of Climate Justice'. The presentation provided an understanding of feminist politics, overview of linkages between gender and climate justice and an insight into the 'Just transition to a Plastic Free Pacific' and 'Women Defend Commons' campaigns linking to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

The next seminar session is scheduled to be held on Friday July 28th at the University of Fiji's Saweni Campus from 1pm – 2pm.

#

#

Pictured L-R: Ms. Maria Nailevu, Ms. Noelene Nabulivou and DIVA for Equality Representative.

#

Pictured: DIVA for Equality Political Advisor - Ms. Noelene Nabulivou delivering her presentation.

