

Parvin Lata

BA (HIC/LLC), GDT, PGD in Hindi Literature, MA Hindi in progress.

Parvin Lata began her career as an Administrator at Nadi Multi-Ethnic Cultural Center and later joined The Jet Newspaper as an Administrator as well. After completing her Bachelor of Arts Degree at the University of Fiji, she started teaching in Hindi Language and Indian Culture (as a part-time assistant lecturer). After one year of teaching, she was appointed as a fulltime assistant lecturer in Hindi at the University of Fiji. She has also completed Graduate Diploma in Teaching (GDT), Post Graduate Diploma in Hindi Literature and is currently doing Masters in Hindi Literature at the University of Fiji. Parvin Lata now teaches undergraduate level Hindi. She is a passionate and hardworking person and has the capacity to encourage her students towards better future.

International Conference

- International Conference to Commemorate the Centennial of the Abolition of Indian Indentureship (CCAIL) at the University of Fiji from March 22 – March 24, 2017. Paper Title – The Plight of Indentured Laborers in Fiji Presenters: Suvishna Singh, Washni Kumar and Parvin Lata
- FIPC2021 VIRTUAL CONFERENCE 13-14 March 2021
Phagwa as a Community Festival

Collaborative Authors:

Ms. Washni Warsha Kumar, Ms. Parvin Lata and Mr. Gyaneshwar Rao