EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST Website Revamp Project

The University of Fiji (UoF) is inviting Expressions of Interest (EOI) from experienced and creative website design and development professionals or companies interested in partnering with the University on the redevelopment of its official website. The project aims to create a modern, visually engaging, secure, user-friendly, and future-ready digital platform, including hosting support, that reflects the University's identity, values, academic excellence, and strategic direction.

The University's current website requires significant modernization to improve user experience, accessibility, functionality, branding, digital engagement, and integration with existing and future University systems.

The University is particularly interested in engaging vendors with demonstrated expertise in:

- Website design and branding
- User experience (UX/UI)
- Front-end and back-end development
- Content management systems
- Digital storytelling and visual presentation
- Website hosting and support services

Interested parties are encouraged to submit, but not limited to, the following:

- Company profile and portfolio of similar projects
- Relevant experience, expertise and support capability
- Indicative pricing for budgetary purposes
- At least three (3) client references and contact details
- A brief overview of the proposed methodology, approach, timelines and any additional information considered relevant to this EOI

Expressions of Interest should be submitted no later than 4pm on Friday, 4 September 2026. Late submissions may not be considered unless prior arrangements have been made with the University.

For further information, clarification, or submission of an EOI, please contact:
